Evidence & context

DOCUMENTED RECORD • OFFICIAL ELECTION RESULTS; CORRECTION C-017

The FEC's official 2024 results record Trump with 77,302,580 votes (49.80%) and Harris with 75,017,613 (48.32%); the electoral-vote result was 312–226.

This corrects the preserved Chapter 10 statement that treats 2024 as a national popular-vote loss. Trump won a plurality; a share below 50% does not mean losing the popular vote. It does not predict the 2026 midterms.
